

FLIGHT, FRICTION AND FEELINGS: THE GREYLAG GOOSE IN RESEARCH AND SOCIETY

Join us for an exciting webinar, organised by the EGMP Greylag Goose Task Force, which will explore this amazing bird from both scientific and social perspectives - migration, hunting, urban life and more!

4 June 2025

10:00 - 12:15 CEST

Zoom Link: <https://un-org-unep.zoom.us/j/97077795121>

The webinar is open to public. We hope to see many of you there!

WEBINAR PROGRAMME

GOOSE GAMES – GREYLAG POPULATION DYNAMICS AND ADAPTIVE MANAGEMENT FROM A FRENCH PERSPECTIVE

Matthieu Guillemain | French Biodiversity Agency (OFB)

🕒 10:05 - 10:45

GPS-TRACKING REVEALS WINTER SHORT-STOPPING AND LARGE DIFFERENCES IN INDIVIDUAL MIGRATORY DISTANCE AMONG DANISH GREYLAG GEESE

Henning Heldbjerg | Department of Ecoscience, Aarhus University

🕒 10:45 - 11:05

CRIPPLING BY SHOTGUNS IN SWEDISH GREYLAG GEESE

Niklas Liljebäck | Swedish Association for Hunting and Wildlife Management & Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences

🕒 11:05 - 11:25

URBAN GREYLAG GEESE – WHY DO THEY FARE SO WELL?

Friederike Woog | Natural History Museum Stuttgart

🕒 11:25 - 11:45

ACCEPTANCE OF GOOSE MANAGEMENT IN FOUR KEY STAKEHOLDER GROUPS

Louise Eriksson | Department of Geography, Umeå University

🕒 11:45 - 12:05

Q&A

🕒 12:05 - 12:15

